JEFFERS

So on and on i go, the seconds tick the time out, there's

the answer lies within so why not take a look now...

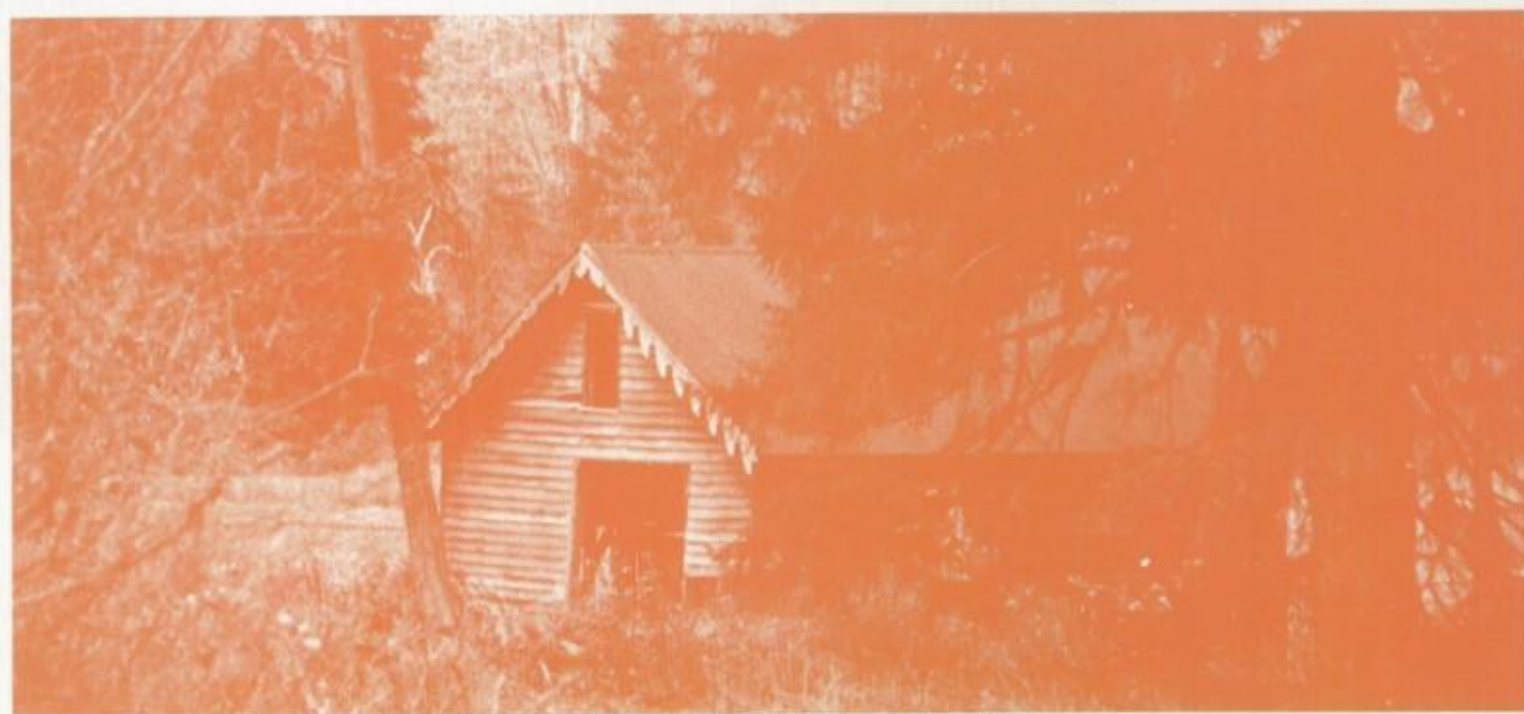

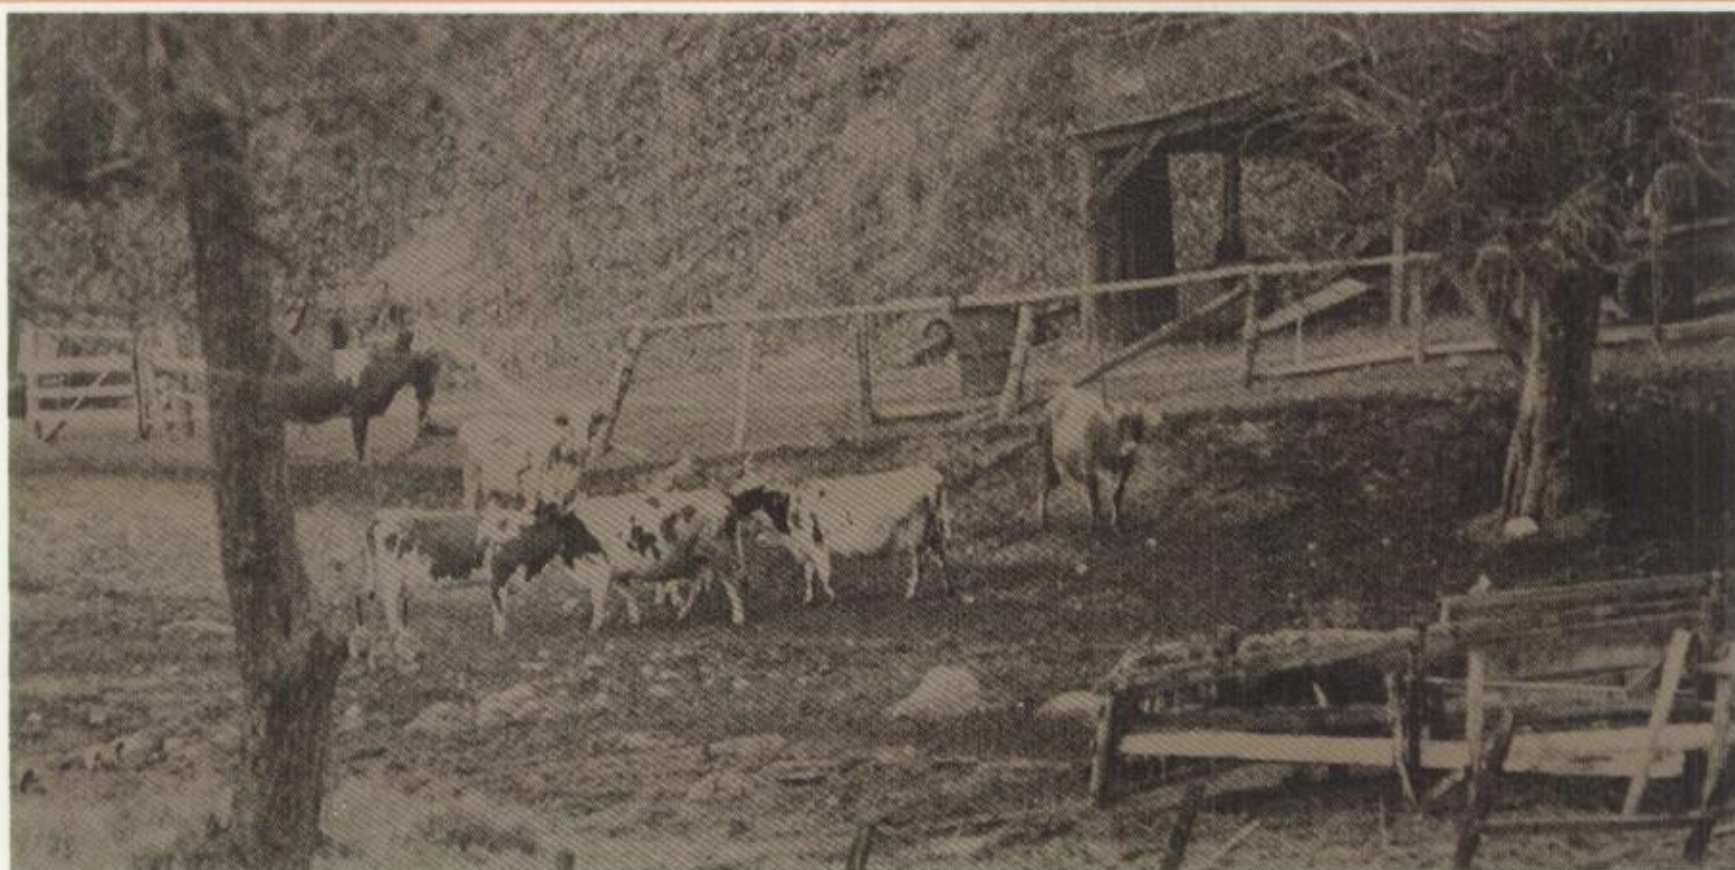

scatter good seed in the fields; life's ours for the making!

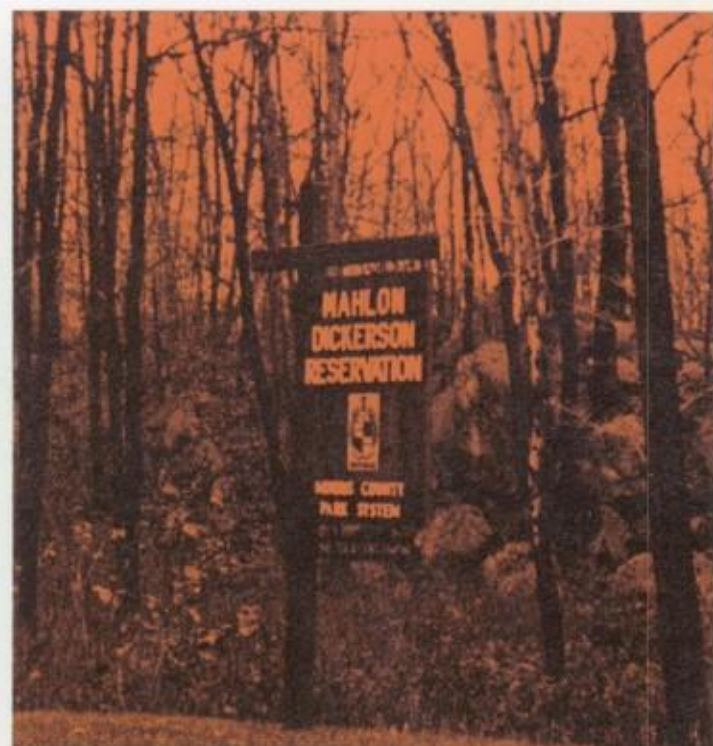

eternity's waiting, waiting, for you and me.

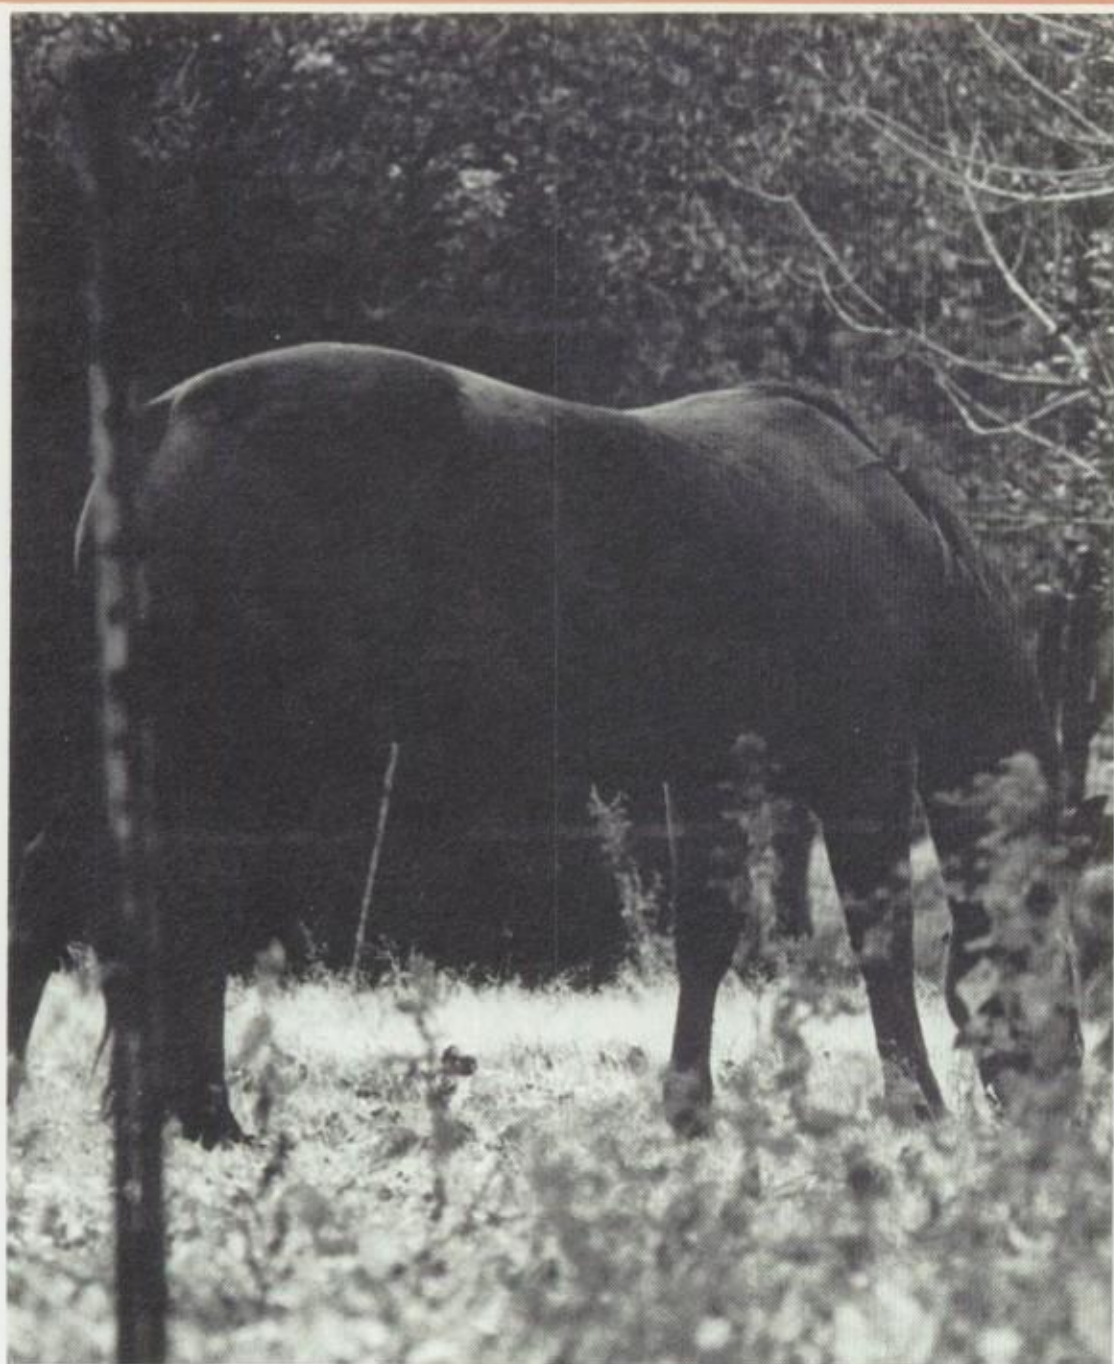

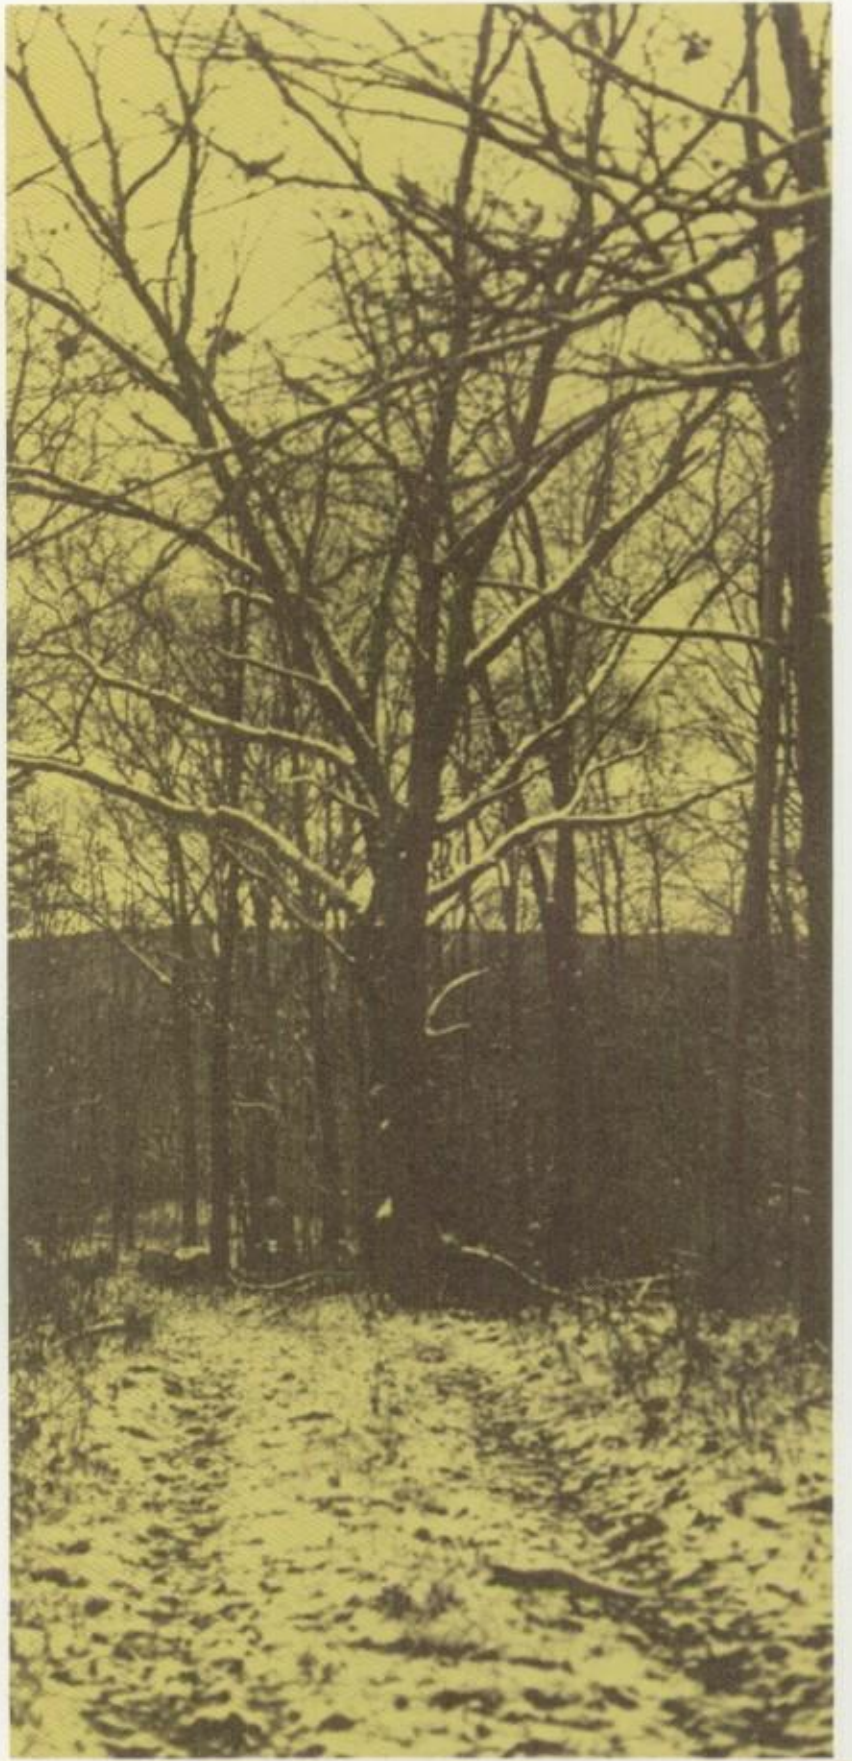

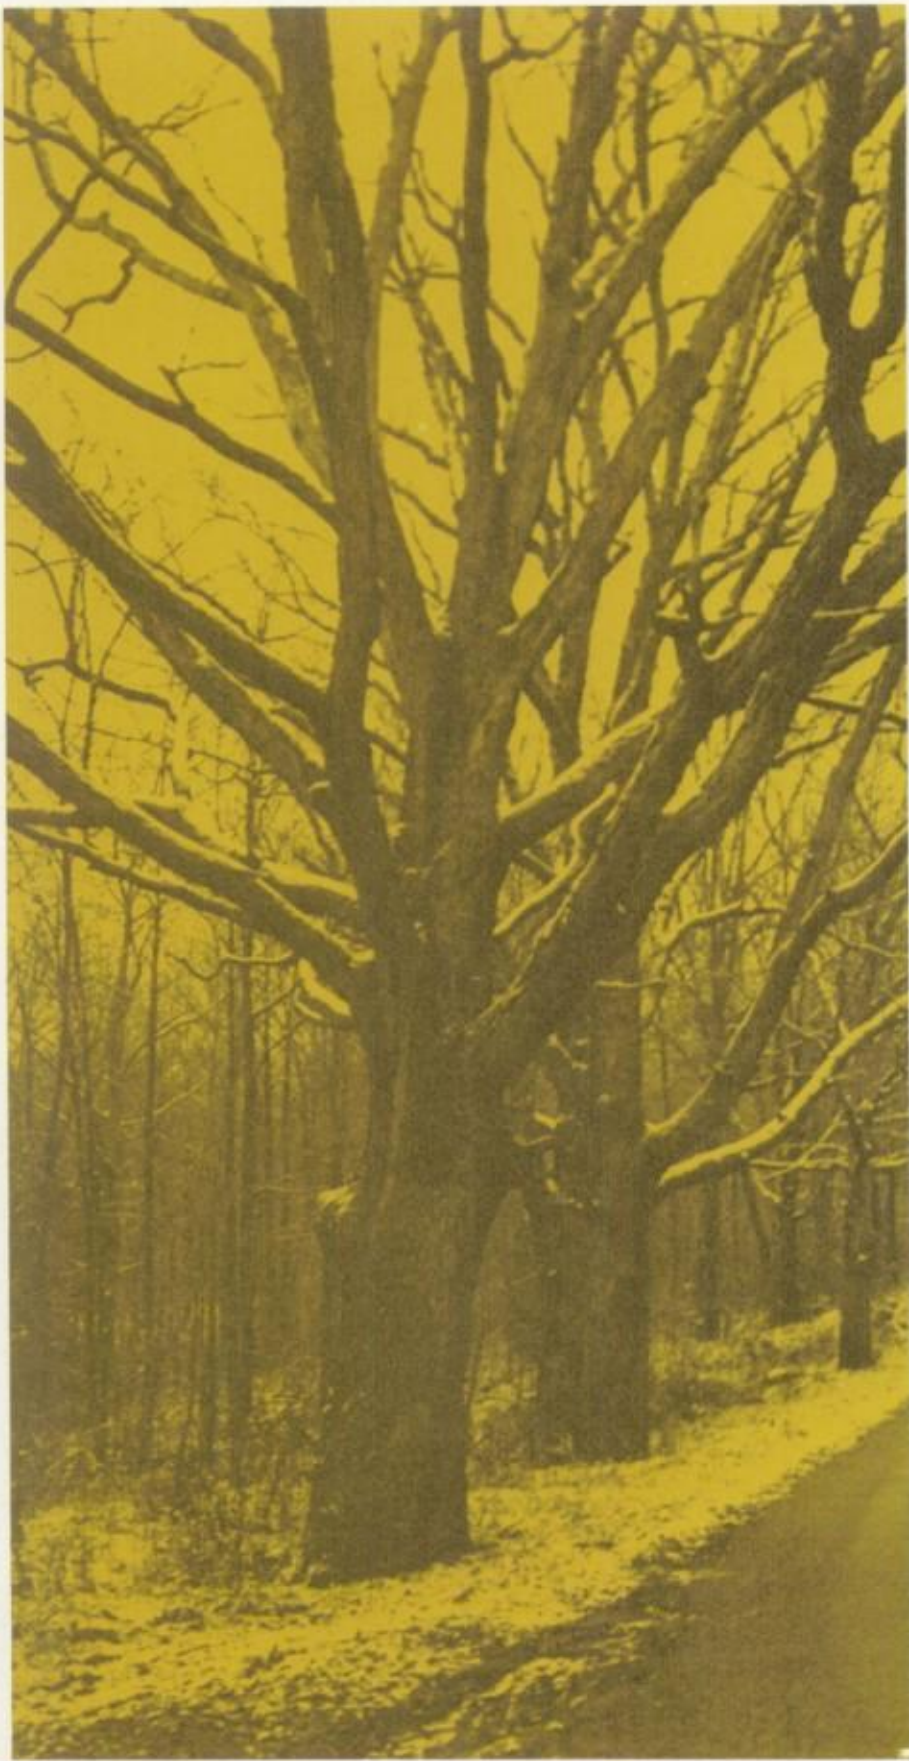

now i've been happy lately thinking about the good things to come, and i believe it could be something good has begun.

i left my folk and friends with the aim to clear my mind out.

well i hit the rowdy road, and many kinds i met there, many stories told me of the way to get there. a wonderful day e score with your eyes. lovely to see you again my friend.

for passing my way. knock on my door and even walk along with me to the next bend.

now you know that you are real, show your friends that you and me belong to the same world, turned on to the same world, — have you heard.

and with tomorrow what will become of me, — they leave me so much to explain, that's the start of our guessing game.

there are times when i think i've found the truth, and the days when i try to hide my fears...

there are times when i know that i've been wrong.
bless the days when i'm feeling strong.

tomorrow i may find me at last...

... turning my back on the past.

A black and white photograph of a young man with dark hair, wearing a patterned sweater, looking down at a desk. Behind him is a chalkboard with musical notation and a wooden podium to the right.

1

A black and white photograph of a large group of young women, likely a choir or glee club, posing in a gymnasium. They are arranged in several rows, with some standing and some sitting on bleachers. They are wearing dark, possibly velvet, robes or jackets over light-colored tops. The background is a plain, light-colored wall with some small, square objects hanging on it.

N FRESHMEN MEN FRESHMEN

it was so easy then holding hands.

blessed are . . . robert acosta linda corona deborah jerome class of 1976 blessed are the one-way ticket holders on the one-way street blessed are the midnight riders for in the shadow of god they sleep.

blessed are the huddled hikers staring out at falling rain wand'ring at the retribution in their personal acquaintance with pain.

blessed are the blood relatives of the young ones who have died who had not the time or patience to carry on this earthly ride.

rain will come and winds will blow, wild deer die in the mountain snow.
birds will beat at heaven's wall what comes to one must come to all.

for you and i are one-way ticket holders on that one-way street which lies across a golden valley where the waters of joy and hope run deep.

so if you pass the parents weeping
of the young ones who have died take them to your warmth and keeping for blessed are the tears they cried and many were the years they tried take them to that valley wide and let their souls be pacified.

CHARLES COLEMAN APPRECO

to be, no matter where, a man;
to take what comes of good or ill and cling to faith and honor still;
to do my best, and let that stand the record of my brain and hand; and then, should failure come to me,
still work and hope for victory.

to have no secret place wherein i stoop unseen to shame and sin; to be the same when i'm alone as when my every deed is known; to live undaunted, unafraid of any step that i have made;
to be without pretense or sham exactly what men think i am.

to leave some simple mark behind to keep my having lived in mind;
if enmity to aught i show,
to be an honest, generous foe, to play my little part, nor whine that greater honors are not mine, this, i believe, is all i need for my philosophy and creed.

class will

i, denise ambrosio, leave this school with it's great and many privileges!?? i leave my gym class with 18 people in a squad, 20 seconds to get dressed and no pass back to class. also i leave my ability to drive to deb borg, and my work shoes to sharon champion.

i, lynn andersen, leave being percussion head to anyone who can stand to be yelled at for everything, and to e.b. and e.c. — all the cute boys in j.t.h.s. for them to swoon over.

i, cissy arias, leave permission to carmen burruezo to dismantle mr. mig's mind and then trade him to the arabs. to my brother vic, four head-pounding years that he has yet to undergo in j.t.h.s., binoculars to see the girls from a distance, and an electric back scratcher that doesn't get tired.

i, ray babich, being of sound mind and body (??) leave a sixpack of tums to next year's editor(s), hairnets for the cafeteria's employees, one copy of "the scientists guide to beachwood aging right in your own cellar" to mr. feitelson, a box of assorted clip ties to mr. labosco, and a nicoban dispenser to the boys' rooms.

i, debbie barbera, leave my brother all the fun i had at j.t.h.s. i wish him lots of luck in sports!

i, ed barry, leave to my two sisters — karen and diane, all the detentions, suspensions, and compositions they can handle; to the high school — all the kids from white rock that they can handle.

i, debby borg, leave my sister dawn three more years to make what she can of this school, and to mr. young, one hall pass with my name and the date on it.

i, sue buchanan, leave jefferson with all its "beauty" to my brothers, who will soon follow my footsteps the quickest way out.

i, pat cancelliere, hereby leave rick and jan to mr. militano, just to let it run in the family.

i, sharra lynn chapman, hereby leave this school to anyone who can start out with 8 1/2 credits and still graduate.

i, karin chrobock, leave to dave cronk the riding of the athletic bus for two more years; to mrs. o. — the basketball uniform i never wore; also the sewing ability i never had and my great measurements to mrs. bailey. finally i leave to luann and janet nitek that queer goalie equipment — may they wear it in pain.

i, denise ciechonowski, leave this school to my sister kathy for two more years.

i, debbie cramer, leave mr. withey all the classes just like my eighth period class in 1972.

i, laurie cronk, leave my spanish book to carmen burruezo, and my old rotten hockey shoes to joy dominguez for one more year on the jv team.

i, randi derr, leave mrs. o. to all the underclassmen. also, the wacky world of lee swyhart to any girl who can hack him and his moods.

i, tim (murf) derr, leave the american dream machine to the drivers education students so they can ride in class. i also leave the architectural drawing class to whoever wants to get ripped off. lastly i leave gar a battery so he can start his own car after practice.

i, claudia douris, leave all my soap operas, especially "all my children" to mr. clancy.

i, dorothy drechsel, leave mr. militano thanks for the first interesting and stimulating english class i ever had; terri finlay, the memories of the three pink pearl; to barbara drummond, banana pants, a punch in the arm, and the ability to ask questions in class without being embarrassed; to Harry, great reasoning ability.

i, barbara drummond, leave mr. kota a few days of peace and quiet; to carol, another month of wearing dresses, and to all the hockey players that are left five minutes of running (?).

i, geri dunlop, leave this school with lots of luck because it needs it!!!

i, michael duswalt, leave mr. militano my new shoes so instead of starting another collection he can just give them to someone; to walt mcconnell, the memory of the state championship in 71; to mr. weir, the hope of still another good year; to the j.t.h.s. marching band, i leave a fine sousaphone without confetti. i also leave the football team with the memory of a never finer cheering section as the x-c team.

i, laurie felter, leave four more years in this school to my brother rusty, and the ability to park in the parking lot to kim taylor.

i, thomas k. fether, leave to my brother bob, my old gym locker complete with a used gymsuit. also i leave a complete set of physics notes from mr. kota's class. (along with a headache i got from that class.)

i, terry finlay, leave to walter mcconnell, a loose runner, a pair of knitting needles and yarn, with hopes that he will be as resourceful as danny s. (he is also a loose lad.)

i, harvey flatt, leave my brother jerry one more year at j.t.h.s.

i, patty flatt, leave brenda mathews one more year.

i, donna goodyear, leave this school to whoever can stick it out, and diane, my booth in the girls' room and you had better use the ashtrays!

i, kathy goritski, leave my sister elena my saddle shoes, mrs. p., aspirin, and the continuation of our soap operas to carol carpenter and sandy pajor.

i, david hamill, leave mr. crespo his many bridges down in that swamp, barb kendall, my pet ant emmit, and to my long haired brother vin i leave two more years in this place.

i, barbara hammel, leave sadly the greatest choir and choir teacher to my sister cheryl, to enjoy for two more years.

i, carole hamrick, leave to jefferson high school my locker that never opened and my dungarees, and to mr. kota i leave all my correct answers in physics.

i, stan hankinson, having survived six years in this school, leave to mr. weir an ounce of "desire" for next years cross country team; to the track team i leave three striped spike wrenches; to walter mcconnell i leave a hair barrette; for jim gorski, one full length mirror so that he can admire himself, and to sandy, i leave love.

i, linda harrison, leave miss kritter all my jeans; joyce slobodzian, 15 pounds; and a white blouse to whoever found it at willowbrook.

i, glenn hawxhurst, leave kathy goritski the idea of staying out of the "boys' " room; coach sparling and coach neswald more winning season in track; coach weir the dynasty he will always have in c.c.; to the rest of the coaching staff, i wish them all good luck and thanks.

i, debbie haycock, leave all the unsympathetic gym teachers to georgeann k. and mr. cueman and mr. neswald (when he's here) to all the unfortunate d.e. students.

i, suzanne hillen, leave my ability to write early dismissals for myself and anyone who needs one to sandi so that she and all the rest of the crowd can skip school whenever they please.

i, chip hillenbrand, leave my ditching ability to the opponents; my baseball bat to the "mobo" and the underclassmen a bottle of "no doze" in a certain class.

i, cathy kerwick, leave this school with great pleasure. i leave joy domiguez the opportunity for being on the junior varsity hockey again because she enjoys wind sprints so much.

i, debbie lourie, leave this school to my brother shawn and hope that he will find something in this school that i have not found in all six years.

i, karen leach, leave to mrs. o. a senior statistic chart and the underclassmen, hoping that she'll be able to get their spirit high and make them active in every way.

i, carol lockwood, leave mrs. b. a new dress, mrs. kendall my time sheet, miss ritter the dress of the year award. harry and i leave mrs. o. ten demerits, two zips, and her 600 yard walk-run.

i, kerry luhrs, leave to cheryl witty three old soggy bass clarinet reeds; to any accepting girl, four private typing lessons with the sauve and debonaire mr. sidovar, the fantastic bus rides every morning to my brother, and to mr. rutsch, many more wonderful debate tournaments with carolyn trout.

i, richard martinez, leave to mr. militano one deflated basketball, (so he can palm it,) and a great book by calvin murphy entitled: "i can dunk it if i try."

i, barbara mcconnell, leave the former miss park one essay writer for economics that was not copied from; to phyll i leave a bottle of yago, and to loretta a red flowered shirt.

i, al mitchko, leave our lovely "institute of learning" to pam, janet, and andrea. may they learn to ignore it as i have. i leave mr. rutsch a pacifier for when he gets going in debating.

i, kathy nicholson, leave everything that i am not taking with me to my favorite teacher, and all fond memories of myself to my niece ellen.

i, barbara nitek, leave my sister jane my dirty gym socks, three more years of grief, and a ticket to newark airport. to diana edwin i leave a dozen duncan doughnuts; to karen chrobach a ninth grade basketball game; to barbara mcconnell a few turtle heads; to deb barbera one shorthand notebook full of notes written in class, and to laura calhoun, some raw dough. to debbie dely i leave the happiest senior year possible with memories of tears, a rainy day, missing the bus, four on four, d. q., going out to eat, g.s.a., basketball, and shopping. last but not least, i leave carole hamrick 45 cones, all dipped in chocolate with sprinkles.

i, donna norris, leave to robin pym the senior door, all the upcoming german students to mrs. withey, all the junior girls to mrs. o., and the entire school to diane and ricky.

i, mel oxenreider jr., leave jim gorski a broken bat, two short years to phyllis, and 12 long years to my little sister.

i, sue peiffer, leave this school and sergeant o. with pleasure.

i, kathy presbruhi, leave this school and all the teachers.

i, ann rainey, leave peace and quiet to mr. shetline; after two years, he needs it!

i, john rockwell, leave steve swyhart 144 million penguin shirts, and mr. randall 100 wooden walnut rings that i made in his woodshop class over the years.

i, nilda rodriguez, leave to diana a year of good old j.t.h.s. i leave to carmen b. and diana the title of portorican seniors. to anyone of o.e.o., i leave a seat on the late bus every night, which will take two hours for a jefferson minute ride.

i, joan rolstad, leave my great b.s.ing ability to my cousin susan, whom i know will use it well. i leave my six-year-old gym-socks and sneakers to anyone brave enough to open the locker i left them in!

i, greg short, leave ogar a black motorcycle jacket that's two sizes too big, a copy of the gettysburg address to mr. ochs, and to anyone who has a certain class three years in a row, a giant bottle of no-doze.

i, kathy silva, leave my two sisters, yon and linda, all the luck that they will need.

i, joyce slobodzian, leave mark sherman to the future swooners, mike duswalt's bruises to anyone who wants them, and lastly i leave jefferson hoping that the future classes will carry on our memories.

i, carol spence, leave my ability to roam the halls without a pass to dave and the senior court privileges to marie.

i, joe stein, being of sound mind and body leave the heartaches of this school to any underclassmen; to jim gorski, the talent and ability which is needed to protect our defensive side next year, and to mr. clancy i leave a pink nightgown.

i, bill stover, being of fairly sound mind and body leave mr. ochs to joey remshifski, and to mr. mig i leave all the future spanish students and also to him i leave any good-will clothes that are lying around.

i, david tasker, leave rhino five long years at j.t.h.s. and i also leave steve swyhart — the rip-off artist.

i, joan toronzi, leave b.j. a years supply of jellybeans, and for dee-dee, a six foot beer bottle for her right eye.

i, ginny torresson, leave sil cresco two rabbits and all the duck eggs that never hatched.

i, mike tresslar, leave my sister shari four good years in j.t.h.s. with happiness, mr. fitzgibbon and english grammar book, bobby schultz my two extra inches, ogar a flat basketball, a broken fungo to mr. kota, and love to the girl who needs it.

i, jean velle, leave my gymsuit to my cousin karen, and my gymsocks to anyone that needs them. i also leave the school with five more pounds of me.

i, donna voigtman, leave mr. togno three more voigtmans left to come, with hopes that things will be better for them.

i, janice wilhelm, leave sitting through a football game to anyone who's stupid enough, as i was, to even attempt such a miraculous feat. i also leave two years of riding the bus to brian gable, and pittsburgh to carmen.

i, cheryl willis, leave my brother all the good times i have had in this school.

i, edward wood, leave my many splinters to mike farley.

i, douglas e. yeo, upon leaving this institution, do hereby bequeath one bassoon rred to ed, a box of cards to mr. sost, an excedrin headache (972) to the members of the j.t.h.s. marching band, and thoughts and memories of tchaikowski and bernstein to debbie.

senior directory

bruce ackerman

better known as ack, he likes being with friends or having a good time. he dislikes people who place others inferior to themselves because they have different interests or ideas. he is usually found anywhere but at home, mostly with jayne. you often hear him say "yer darn tootin" or "aye calumba". bruce will always remember the "luv" group, mr. clancy, the plays, and dirty-smoke-filled bathrooms. he plans to go to college and major in theatre arts, then acting as a career. his hobbies are snow skiing, and listening to music. bruce is most happy when on stage, with jayne, or just relaxing on a sunny day. his philosophy of life is "try to make the most of every day of your life, enjoy people, get to know and love them, make life ... interesting! he participated in baseball 1, student council 1,2,3, choir 2,3,4, newspaper 2,3,4, luv, musical 2, jr.'sr. play, and drama 3,4. bruce's birthday is september 25.

denise ambrosio

usually called "de" and likes hanging around hardee's with joanne, wrestling matches, debi, sharon and being down the shore with deb, don, and kevin. she dislikes conceited people, having no car. losing games and waiting. de is usually found swimming laps with debi, or in the halls with sharon. she is often heard saying, "yeah i might". she will always remember cutting class with sharon, riding around with debi, and joyce in gym. denise plans to have a great time. her hobbies are finding things to do, and swimming. de is most happy when school's out, bob acts retarded and a certain person is at work. she participated in gsa 1,2,4, powder puff 3,4. denise's birthday is november 13.

lynn andersen

lynn likes being with friends, going places. she dislikes people chomping like a cow, and when people try to be something they are not. lynn is usually found sleeping whenever she can. she is often heard saying, "oh, wow!" and "way to go". lynn will always remember freezing while practicing on the football field with the marching band. her future plans are to become a medical assistant and travel the world. her hobbies are swimming, skiing, and camping with just a sleeping bag and her pillow. lynn is most happy when not in band. her philosophy of life is to take life as it comes and don't let people get you down. she participated in gsa 1, 2,3,4, band 1,2,3,4, marching band 1,2,3,4, band council 2,3,4, softball 1,2, choir 3,4, powder puff football 3,4, basketball manager 3, "my fair lady" — assn't director, and treasurer of hope walk. lynn's birthday is december 30.

celeste arias

cissy is usually called smiley or "mexican peanut." she likes going out, babies, italian food, going to rock concerts, shopping for new clothes, arguing with mr. mig., playing basketball on the court with carmen, and all the teachers who are dear to her. cissy dislikes being bored, dieting, rainy days, monday mornings, getting up early, riding on the school bus, and fire drills on a cold winter day. she is usually found in the hallways running to class, or in the lunchroom talking and eating with burruenzo, dely, blide, and andersen. cissy is often heard saying, "i'm only kiddin'," or "that's really spiffy." she will always remember mr. mig's fairy tales and shoes, gym with mrs. p., and all the vivacious kids in j.t.h.s. her future plans are to go to katharine gibbs in ny to become a legal secretary.

better known as woody, he likes sports, girls, bud, steve stills and ian anderson. he dislikes getting up early and school. he is usually driving in "midnight Rambler". he is often heard saying, "back off, jack." he will always remember don's chemistry class and big tone. woody plans to become a psychiatrist. his hobbies are skiing, basketball, and listening to good music. woody is most happy when people don't let him down. he advises others, "do it! but don't get caught." eddie participated in football 1,3,4, wrestling 1, track 3,4, and rock concert.

douglas yeo

his nicknames are "dudley dought", "yeo-yeo", or just "yeo". he likes the music of stravinsky, tchaikovsky, shostakovitch, copland, beethoven, and p.d.q. bach. he dislikes people with no goal in life and those who have no self pride. he is usually found in the music room practicing his trombone or with mr. clancy working on his novel. doug's favorite saying is, "if you have faith no bigger than a mustard seed and tell a mountain to move from here to there, it will move; for with faith, nothing is impossible." doug will always remember the hanover band exchange, the marching band festivals, and "cutting loose" with barb and moose after mr. ochs' chem class. his future plans are to go to a music conservatory and eventually play in the trombone section of the boston, philadelphia, or new york philharmonic orchestra. his hobbies are playing trombone, creative writing, and composing. yeo is most happy when playing his trombone and listening to tchaikovsky's sixth symphony. his philosophy on life is, "do all you can today; yesterday was wasted, tomorrow may not come." after coming to jefferson in his junior year, doug participated in band 3,4, choir 3,4, band council 3,4, marching band 3,4, marching band drill master 4, new york all state sectional orchestra 3, solo trombone, new jersey all state orchestra 4, and school musical 3,4. douglas's birthday is may 19.
